I Have Only Slipped Away Into The Next Room

Whatever we were together, that we are still. Call me by name. Speak to me in the easy way you always did.

Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me—pray for me.

Let my name be spoken without effort. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was.

Why should I be out of your mind because I am out of your sight? I am waiting for you for an interval, somewhere very near—just around the corner.

All is well. Nothing is past; nothing is lost. One brief moment and all will be as it was before—only better, infinitely happier and forever—we will all be one together with Christ.

The Serenity Prayer

God grant me the serenity
to accept the things I cannot change;
courage to change the things I can;
and wisdom to know the difference.

Living one day at a time;
Enjoying one moment at a time;
Accepting hardships as the pathway to peace.

Remember me as you pray at night, For this is when you sense me the most-
Know that I am, and forever will be, Alive with God, as my host.

Lovingly Submitted, Anginetta Montgomery, Timothy Grant, George Riley, Faye Jackson and the entire Jack's Memory Chapel Staff.
